Why do you want to board your horse at the OSU Horse Center?

Do you plan on riding or working with your horse every day?

What are your goals with your horse?

Briefly describe your previous experience with livestock (including horses):

I have read and understand the Code of Conduct. I am willing to follow all of the rules to insure the professionalism and safety of both myself and my horse. I understand that this is a special type of boarding facility and that it is under greater scrutiny and has higher expectations to provide an exceptional image to the public and other OSU students and staff. I understand that daily stall cleaning and daily exercise of my horse is my responsibility and that breaking the Code of Conduct will not be tolerated and may lead to eviction.
